Duncan. President Obama made an unexpected visit to the meeting and stated that education is one of his top priorities. Dr. Rex gave an update on his meeting with Secretary of Education Duncan. He stated that a part of the stimulus money would be coming to South Carolina within the next couple of weeks. He explained that a lot of this money is formula driven: Title One and IDEA, which are progressive programs for unprivileged students and students with special needs.

Dr. Rex said that the South Carolina State House had met and approved their budget, which incorporates stimulus funds. The South Carolina State Senate is in the process of working on their budget. He met with them and suggested that the SCDE and the Senate work closely together in assembling the budget for education. He has also spoken with the Governor, who is working on his recommendations for the recovery funds. The Governor indicated he is requesting a waiver for more flexibility. If this waiver is not approved, then he may consider other options.

Dr. Rex stated that Secretary Duncan wants to get the money to the states quickly, give as much guidance as possible at the front end, and hopefully the transparency and accountability will give flexibility, but at the same time keep everyone on track.
